The Building

Mason's Press

Mason's Press is located in Woodstock creative district with a variety of units available. This vibey office block offers an innovative and playful environment. Contemporary work spaces housing flourishing entrepreneurs contributing to the dynamic atmosphere in 'The Woods'. Previously occupied by Mason's Press, this building hosts the ideal office space. The warehouse has been tastefully refurbished and converted into office space within the old industrial building. The space houses both commercial and retail studios with incredible potential. The ground floor retail space lends itself to the vibrant array of stores. Ideally located within close proximity of the Highway and within walking distance to the main public transport routes. This office space offers a very practical space for entrepreneurs. Mason's Press is a multi-purpose commercial building that offers a great selection of coffee, food, artisan and business offerings.
